

"Here comes the first "VeneziaInAcquarello" Festival!

The creation of this 2019 event came from the desire to connect and expand the "FabrianoInAcquarello" celebrations in the art of watercolor.

Thanks to the Fabriano's experience that supports and promotes the initiative, Venice is ready to welcome all the artists who want to paint its magnificent glimpses and visit its unique beauty .

Venice undertakes to promote cooperation and creative between international watercolor artists and the public .

The Venice Painting Holiday Program enables the participants to visit the City and the Island of Burano giving them the option to take part in the open painting sessions given by the leading invited Canadian artist Alfonso L. Tejada and in other different activities.

All the participants will be welcomed with a typical venetian dinner.

On the last day artists will display their paintings during an "Expo Cocktail", organized as a vernissage where art critics and invited guests can meet painters and see their pieces of art.
